co-founders of Integrity Grove, an Iowa-based marketing agency.

WHY ATTEND?

Learn how to best communicate and bring customers to your business using social media.

Explore useful apps and tools to make your social media pages look professional, including video.

Learn how to make sure potential customers can find you on Google search and maps.

Aaron is an award-winning marketer with certifications from Google, HubSpot, and LinkedIn. He has several years of experience leading marketing strategies for banks, nonprofits, and local businesses, helping them set clear goals and improve their marketing efforts.

Isaac built his personal social media brand to 50k+ followers and garnered 20 million impressions, learning how to create engaging content and grow an audience firsthand. That experience led him to work with top brands such as Pepsi and Kum & Go, helping them improve their digital presence.

Together, they use storytelling and social media strategies to help businesses stand out online.
